PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR DISCOVERY

Having duly considered the United States’ Motion for a Protective Order pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d)(1), the Court finds good cause to order the following restrictions on discovery:

1. Except as provided herein, defense counsel shall not distribute, show, or make available to individuals other than the Defense Team¹ the discovery containing Protected Information².

¹ “Defense Team” is defined as the defendant, his defense attorney(s), defense investigators, or experts or consultants retained by defendant’s counsel.

² “Protected Information” is defined as any discovery that contains any Anchorage Police Department (APD) agency materials, APD training records, or police reports containing personally identifiable information.

2. The Protected Information will be produced by the United States to the Defense Team with a “PROTECTED” bates reference and a designation in the discovery log that it is protected.

3. The Defense Team shall keep discovery containing Protected Information at the law offices of Sedor Wendlandt Evans & Filippi, in Anchorage, Alaska.

4. The Defense Team shall make a good-faith effort to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of Protected Information. Such efforts shall include taking steps to prevent the unauthorized disclosure to anyone outside the Defense Team by any means or medium.

5. This Order shall apply to all discovery provided by the United States on or after June 3, 2022.

6. Any court filing disclosing Protected Information shall be filed under seal, and in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1.
